"One of the greatest benefits of doing business in Maine is the opportunity to make a difference. In this state, companies still contribute to the growth and vitality of the communities in which they are located, and are actively involved in shaping the future of those communities for the betterment of the company, its employees, and the surrounding area. People are able to live and work in communities where the quality of life is exceptional. This combination of quality of life and the ability to have a positive impact provide a climate for doing business that fosters personal and professional growth."
